KEY MESSAGE

Marking its 15th anniversary, the Cluster for Logistics (C4L) enters a new chapter of maturity and impact. In a complex global environment, 2025 has confirmed the strength and relevance of Luxembourg's logistics ecosystem.

Throughout the year, the Cluster for Logistics has demonstrated its ability to anticipate change, support its members, and translate strategic priorities into concrete action. This resilience is not coincidental: it is the result of long-term collaboration between companies, public authorities and partners united by a shared commitment to excellence.

Key advancements in 2025 include:

- The welcoming of new members, enriching our ecosystem with fresh expertise and reinforcing collective strength.
- Through the Lean & Green initiative, concrete steps have been taken towards more sustainable logistics, turning ambition into measurable progress.
- Pioneering digital transformation initiatives that have streamlined operations and enhanced efficiency.
- The expansion of multimodal transport options, further enhancing connectivity while contributing to a lower environmental footprint.
- Strengthened cross-border cooperation, consolidating Luxembourg's role as a reliable and forward-looking European logistics hub.

These achievements reflect the collective commitment of our members and stakeholders, and the value of a cluster that acts as a platform for dialogue, innovation and alignment.

Looking ahead to 2026, we remain committed to continuing our journey of growth and innovation, embracing new opportunities in technology, sustainability, and infrastructure.

The Cluster for Logistics acts as a trusted partner, working hand in hand with policymakers and businesses to enhance Luxembourg's logistics performance and contribute to long-term economic growth.

Together, we are shaping the foundations of a logistics sector that is future-ready, responsible and sustainable.

UECC meets in Frankfurt !

Focus on Air Transport Transformation ✈️

On March 27 and 28, the UECC - Union of European Chambers of Commerce & Industry for transport - held its spring meeting in Frankfurt am Main, led by President Davor Sertic.

The meeting focused on current developments in air transport.

Key Presentations:

- Peter Malanik: New developments in air freight
- Léonie Lauer: Decarbonization in air transport
- Kristine Heinisch: Masterplan CargoHub FRA
- Harald Sieke: Digitalization and Sustainability in Aviation
- Grit Engelbart: Introduction of the Air Cargo Community Frankfurt (ACCF)
- Mark Freymueller: Hydrogen propulsion for decarbonizing air freight replacement transport

Practical Insights:

- Tour of air freight handling in #CargoCity with presentations by Lufthansa Cargo on #Sustainability and #Innovation.

Main Takeaways:

- Continuous efforts by research institutions, airlines, and service providers to reduce #CO2 emissions through efficient aircraft, lighter equipment, Sustainable Aviation Fuels (#SAFs), and optimized processes.
- The path to nearly CO2-emission-free aviation is still long.
- A multilateral approach is essential to avoid competitive disadvantages for European airlines due to unilateral regulations.

On the 24th and 25th September 2025, the members of the UECC organized a congress in Vienna dedicated to “Transport, traffic and logistics are the backbone of the economy.”

Participants attended a presentation and guided factory tour at ALSTOM Transport Austria’s headquarters in Vienna (picture).

The Vienna site is a long-established global competence center for trams and light rail systems, employing around 800 people. It covers the entire value chain, from initial customer contact and development to manufacturing, assembly, and after-sales support.

Presentation of the Resolution regarding driver shortage

The European transport and logistics sector faces major challenges, particularly a severe driver shortage and a lack of secure truck parking. Currently, around 230,000 driver positions are unfilled, with projections rising to 745,000 by 2028. In addition, there is a shortage of over 390,000 safe parking spaces, leading to safety risks and regulatory issues.

To address these challenges, the UECC calls for improving drivers’ working conditions by increasing the attractiveness of the profession through digitalization, better facilities, and real-time parking information systems. It also emphasizes the need to expand secure parking infrastructure across European transport networks and to modernize driver qualification rules to simplify recognition of licenses and qualifications across countries.
