

Invitation

15th November 2018

14:30 – 18:30

Chamber of Commerce

The Cluster for Logistics Luxembourg invites to its Autumn Conference

“Moving Barriers in Supply Chain”

Key subjects:

Update from the British Ambassador
How VAT will change for e-commerce?

Update your Brexit strategy

Need for standardized contracts?

Frictionless Border after BREXIT?

The Event is followed by a networking drink.

Sponsored by:

STREMLER AG

cargolux

Registration at www.c4l.lu/movingbarriers

Luxembourg
15th Nov. 2018
Chamber of Commerce

C4L Conference

“Moving Barriers in Supply Chain”

- 14:00 – 14:30 Registration
- 14:30 – 14:40 Carlo Thelen, President C4L; “The President’s welcome”
- 14:40 – 14:50 H.E. John Marshall, British Ambassador to Luxembourg; “An update from the British Ambassador on Brexit”
- 14:50 – 15:10 Tom Verbrugge, Senior Director, Global Trade Advisory, Deloitte; “Brexit, CETA, US trade barriers: challenges & opportunities”
- 15:10 – 15:30 Maître Anne Paul; “Facilitating Cross border activities through standardized Logistics Contracts”
- 15:30 – 15:50 Karine Bellony, VAT Solutions; “Moving the VAT barriers for e-commerce”
- 15:50 – 16:00 Stephanie Stremmer, PR - STREMLER AG, “No barriers - Realtime synchronisation of performance and market demand”
- Coffee Break
- 16:30 – 16:50 Jason Breakwell, Commercial Director, Wallenborn Transports SA; “Frictionless borders with UK?”
- 16:50 – 17:10 Michel Cigrang, Director CLdN RoRo SA; “Brexit, a push for multimodal solutions?”
- 17:10 – 17:30 Cluster News and Closing by Malik Zeniti, Director C4L
- 17:30 Networking & Drinks

Sponsored by:

